EMERGENCY CONTACTS & TEMPORARY CUSTODIANS

In order to ensure the safety and well-being of all Summer Intensive participants and personnel, all students and visitors will be required to follow designated check-in/check-out procedures for the Tulsa Ballet facility. All students will be required to check-in upon arrival at the facility and must check-out before departure each day. To facilitate these security procedures, the custodial parent/guardian of each Summer Intensive participant must provide Tulsa Ballet with a list of emergency contacts and persons authorized to serve as temporary custodians.

Emergency Contacts are individuals other than the custodial parent/guardian who may be notified in the event of a medical emergency. Emergency Contacts may be asked to authorize necessary medical treatment for the child if the custodial parent cannot be reached.

Temporary Custodians are individuals other than the custodial parent/guardian who may check a participant out of Summer Intensive classes.

If another adult will be transporting your child to or from Summer Youth Intensive, he/she must be designated as a Temporary Custodian before your child will be allowed to leave with him/her. If relatives or friends wish to have access to your child during Summer Intensive, they must be designated as Temporary Custodians.
